

Inference Intervention

Inference training is a group intervention for pupils in KS2 who decode adequately but fail to get full meaning and enjoyment from their reading. Children take part in a small group lesson which last for 30/40 minutes. An 'Inference Session' can also be delivered as high quality guided reading sessions.